This policy relates to all phases of employment, including but not limited to, recruiting, employment, placement, promotion, transfer, demotion, termination, compensation, benefits, selection for company-sponsored training, the use of all facilities, and participation in all company-sponsored employee activities.

The Company will take affirmative action to recruit, employ, and advance in employment qualified minority group individuals, females, disabled veterans, recently separated veterans, other protected veterans, Armed Forces service medal veterans, and qualified disabled persons, at all levels within the company, as called for by the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Vietnam Era Veteran's Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, Executive Order 11246, all as amended, and/or any other applicable laws.

Further, the Company will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, Company employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the compensation of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is in response to a formal complaint or charge, or in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the Company, or is consistent with the Company's legal duty to furnish information.
